Dear Parents/Guardian,

RE: Racial Harmony Day – Thursday, 19 July 2007

As a school, we will be celebrating Racial Harmony Day. I would like to encourage all parents/guardian to encourage their son/ward to come to school on that day dressed in the ethnic costume of another race. This would remind all our pupils of the importance to live in harmony with the many races in Singapore. If you are unable to get the ethnic costumes of another race, your son/ward should come dressed in your own ethnic costume.

During recess on that day, traditional food items, such as muah chee, ding ding candy, bak chang putu mayam and roti kirai will be sold in the canteen. It would be appreciated if you could give your son/ward some extra cash on that day so that he can purchase these items.

Thank you.

Yours faithfully,

Lim Chew Hiong, Richard
Principal
