Dear Parents/Guardian,

It gives us great pleasure to present to you our Teacher's Day Tribute Book, To Teach, With Love specially produced by Anglo-Chinese School (Primary) in collaboration with the Parent Support Group.

Almost 2 years ago, the school leaders initiated discussions with the Parent Support Group (PSG), to explore the possibility of publishing a book containing tributes by both present and past students, as well as parents and Old Boys, for our teachers. The book is meant to serve as a source of encouragement for our teachers who very often toil continuously without seeing the fruits of their labour till possibly many years later. The project was launched in August 2006 and the PSG Publications sub-committee received many heart-warming contributions from our pupils, parents and Old Boys.

I would like to take the opportunity to thank each and every one of you who took the time to submit your tributes. Without your support, this book would not have become a reality.

The book was presented by the pupils to each teacher in ACS(P) as a Teachers' Day gift during the Teachers' Day celebration in school on 31 August 2007.

This is a special gift as it is a collection of our pupils' thoughts and reflections about their experiences with various teachers. It is precious because each tribute was prepared with love and appreciation. It is indeed a book to be treasured for many years to come.

The school is given each household a copy of "To Teach, With Love" and they will be distributed to the pupils today. For those of you who have more than one son in the school, the book has been given to the elder/eldest sibling.

We would like to encourage you to take the time to go through the pages of To Teach, With Love – a labour of love celebrating our teachers' efforts and our pupils' creativity.

Indeed, To God Be The Glory and The Best Is Yet To Be.

Yours faithfully,

Lim Chew Hiong, Richard
