Dear Parents/Guardian,

Bid For Tickets To A Once In A Lifetime Event "Field of Dreams – A Tribute To The National Stadium"

Be a part of Singapore's football history when the National Stadium closes its doors forever this Saturday, 30 June 2007. We have 20 tickets to this unique football event that will be the final football game played at the National Stadium, before the stadium is demolished and a new sports hub constructed in its place.

The home of the "Kallang Roar" will play host for the final time to an exhibition game between past Singapore and Malaysia greats that will kick off at 5.00pm that day. Here's your chance to relive the great memories of the Malaysia cup and watch stars like Fandi Ahmad, Samad Allapitchay, Quah Kim Song, and V. Sundramoorthy take to the National Stadium for one last time.

The match will be followed by the evening's main event - an international friendly between Asean champions Singapore, and Australia, kicking off at 7.30pm. With their maiden appearance in the AFC Asian Cup in July to come, fans can expect to see a keenly fought game between a Qantas Socceroos squad laden with European-based talent like Mark Viduka, Mark Bresciano, Tim Cahill and Harry Kewell against the Lions.

And that's not all, there will also be a march-in featuring Team Singapore athletes, a song performance from Kit Chan, a ceremonial dousing of the flame and a fireworks & light display. And right after the closing ceremony, the "Field of Dreams" will be transformed into a giant disco where you can take to the field and dance the night away.
