Dear Parents/Guardian,

Teachers' Day-cum-The President's Challenge 2010 – The New Paper Be Yourself Day

The school is celebrating Teachers' Day-cum-The President's Challenge – The New Paper Be Yourself Day on Tuesday, 31 August 2010. Teachers' Day celebrations will be held in the school auditorium.

In support of the President's Challenge, the school is encouraging our pupils to hang up their school uniform and dress creatively to express themselves. Pupils could join in this day of creative freedom by making a donation of any amount in the box located in the General Office. The contributions collected will help The New Paper raise funds for President's Challenge 2010. The President's Challenge, mooted by President Nathan in 2000, is a series of events. Each year, the President selects a list of charitable organisations that are in need of funds or have problems raising funds on their own as beneficiaries of President's Challenge. Year 2010 will be the eleventh year The New Paper is supporting The President's Challenge and ninth year for the Be Yourself Day.

School will start as usual but dismissal will be at 12.00 noon. For pupils who are using the school bus service, the school bus transport will send them home at 12.00 noon.

There will be no after-school activities on Tuesday, 31 August 2010.

Please arrange for your son/ward to wear something creative for that day. If he does not wish to participate in the President's Challenge – The New Paper Be Yourself Day, he can come in his school uniform. Lessons will be as per normal after recess.

Kindly contact Mrs Grace Khoo (Vice-Principal) or myself at 6250-1633 if you need any further clarification.

Yours faithfully,
