Dear Parents/Guardian,

Methodist Heritage Day Walk 2010

The 125th Anniversary celebrations of The Methodist Church in Singapore will culminate with a Methodist Heritage Day Walk on Sunday, 31st October 2010 at 2pm.

The Methodist Heritage Day Walk will commence from the former site of the Methodist Girls' School, now renamed as the Old School. It is located at 11 Mount Sophia, Singapore 228461.

Mount Sophia is of great significance to all Methodists. It is on this mount that many historical sites of our humble Methodist origin once stood. For example, the buildings that once housed the Methodist Centre, the WSCS House and the Trinity Theological College are still existing in that vicinity.

The Methodist Church in Singapore invites all Methodist Schools, Churches and Agencies to send representatives to participate in this Heritage Day Walk. They target to have at least 3,000 participants for this occasion.

The Heritage Day Walk has 3 different routes. Each route has a distance of less than 3 km and will end at either Wesley Methodist Church, Telok Ayer Chinese Methodist Church or Tamil Methodist Church. All participating teams will be assigned to one of the 3 routes to ensure a balanced distribution of participants at each end-point.

All participants will each receive a T-shirt and a goody bag as well as a souvenir flyer corresponding to their assigned route. This flyer will also contain valuable information like key landmarks and the historical facts of the buildings.

The Prime Minister of Singapore, Lee Hsien Loong, will be the invited Guest-of-Honor for this event, along with other religious and community leaders in the spirit of community bonding. PM Lee Hsien Loong will flag off all participants to commence the walk from Mount Sophia. There will also be a Methodist Heritage and Archive Exhibition on display at the Mount Sophia site as well as at the end-point churches. Participants are advised to come early to view the exhibits at Mount Sophia.

Your participation is key to the success of this event. Family members and friends are also welcome to participate as part of community bonding.
