If you are a dad, this email is for you. If you are married to one, please read this email to him and encourage him to attend. If you fall in neither category, please forward this to friends that you know and keep this inaugural meeting in prayer.

Teens at risk!

Marriages failing!

Broken families!

Absent fathers!

A very special gathering is taking place this Saturday.

Hundreds of dads will be coming together to affirm their calling to be the spiritual head of the family. It will be a time of revival and re-dedication of our families to God. We will be challenging dads to love their wife and to be that example for their children.

Project Elijah runs parallel to the nation-wide Dads for Life programme that was launched by MCYS. The key persons; Mr Jason Wong and the ambassador for Dads for Life; Mr Richard Seow (our chairman Board of Governors for ACS Family); both of these dads will be sharing their heartbeat for this special time together.

Come and allow God to restore our families through us. Admission is FREE!

Blessings,
